

KADUNA STATE UNIVERSITY

SPECIAL BULLETIN

KASU Marching to Excellence: Motivation and Utilizing Emergent Technologies

ISSN 2286-6987

VOL. 81 No. 6

April 2, 2026

Prof. Magaji Moves from CCES to Head KASU College of Continuing Education

Prof. Abubakar Sadiq Magaji

By: Adamu Bargo

Kaduna State University has appointed Professor Abubakar Sadiq Magaji as Provost of its College of Continuing Education, signaling a renewed push toward strengthening alternative learning programmes within the institution.

The appointment, approved by the Vice Chancellor, Prof. Abdullahi Ibrahim Musa was signed by the Registrar, Samira Balarabe Esq noting that the choice of Professor Magaji reflects management's confidence in his ability to provide effective leadership and sustain the university's academic direction.

As Provost, he is expected to oversee the day-to-day administration of the College, convene regular staff meetings, and play an active role in the broader management of the university.

He is also tasked with fostering unity and ensuring a stable academic environment.

His new posting is for a two-year tenure spanning April 1, 2026 to March 31, 2028 as the University community welcomes Prof. Magaji into his new role.

Professor of Applied Computational Mathematics .

Key Positions held in the University (KASU) are:

- (1) Former HoD, Department of Mathematical Sciences
- (2) Pioneer Director of the Institute of Science, Technology and Management Sciences
- (3) Former Director, Research and Development Directorate
- (4) Former Dean, Faculty of Science
- (5) Former Provost, College of Computing, Engineering and Sciences.

