Courtesy and Awareness Visit to the Registrar, Kaduna State University

By: Hamza Musa Makarfi

The Association of Science Laboratory Technologists of Nigeria (ASLTON) paid a courtesy and awareness visit to the Registrar of Kaduna State University (KASU), Samira Balarabe, Esq., to formally inform her of the Association's forthcoming 4th Annual Conference and Workshop, which is scheduled to be held at Kaduna State University.

During the visit, the ASLTON delegation highlighted the objectives of the conference, emphasizing its importance in promoting professional development, knowledge sharing, research collaboration, and innovation among Science Laboratory Technologists across Nigeria. The team also sought the University's support and participation to ensure the success of the event.

In her response, the Registrar, Samira Balarabe, Esq., warmly welcomed the delegation and commended ASLTON for its commitment to advancing the science laboratory profession. She expressed the University's readiness to support initiatives that contribute to academic excellence and professional growth and wished the Association a successful conference and workshop.
