NAPAS DONATES DEPARTMENTAL BANNER AND PRINTER TO KASU PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION DEPARTMENT

The Department of Public Administration, Faculty of Management Sciences, College of Communication and Social Sciences, Kaduna State University, today held the official commissioning and handover ceremony of a departmental banner and printer donated by the National Association of Public Administration Students (NAPAS), KASU Chapter.

The ceremony, attended by the Head of Department, members of the academic staff, and the NAPAS Executive Committee, underscored the enduring partnership between the Department and its students. In their remarks, staff members commended the Association for its commendable gesture, describing the donation as a valuable contribution to the Department's teaching, learning, and administrative activities. They further encouraged the sustenance of such initiatives, noting that collaborative efforts between the Department and its students remain essential to advancing institutional excellence and fostering a culture of shared responsibility.
